Do you have Medicare deducted from your Social Security?

Is your Gross Social Security below
$1,377/month (single) or $1,847/month (married)?

If you answered “yes” to both questions, you may qualify to get your Part B (Medicare) money placed back into your social Security check!

In other words, you may qualify to get help and have your Medicare Part B paid for and not have it deducted from your Social Security.

You would also be able to get medications at a lower cost.

To apply for help, go to the Office for the Aging.

You will need:

- Form of ID * Birth Certificate * Medicare Card
- * Proof of ALL income earned each month
- * Proof of residency (ex. National Grid Bill)
- * Proof of monthly premium paid for Health Insurance
(If applicable)

Call the Office for the Aging @ 343-1611

Ask to speak with someone who can help you determine if you are eligible to get help with Medicare Part B.
